MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON
MR. DELOACH

Deputy Attorney General Richard Kleindienst called on they had an inquiry received by the Public Information Office from New York Times following the Congressman Earl Bowdy. They asked they then asked if we have ever instituted any other kind of electronic surveillance on a Congressman or Senator. Mr. Kleindienst said the initial answer was no but then he began to think it might be better to limit surveillance put on Congressman Bowdy, and he would not could be said with respect to other electronic surveillances of Congressman's offices. (u)

I said first there have been two or three cases in which individuals have been wired with recording devices and gone in as a result of their conversations recorded on a machine on the person. I said we have done that the request of the United States Attorney with the approval of the individual who was wired. Mr. Kleindienst said this was consensual. (u)

I said my feeling is that the less we expand on press inquiries, the better off we are. I said in other words I think the fact that we have stated that no phones at the Capitol compound have been tapped or any surveillances conducted of a Congressman is sufficient, because when you begin to answer these, particularly from a paper like the New York Times which is hostile, and other questions until you get into an expansion and I think the narrower you can keep the situation, the better. I said there was a question this morn-noon of our press relations as to whether we were clearing any Resident Agencies and if so, how many, et cetera. I said for his information we are clearing none; that I had a survey made last week in which every Resident Agency in the country was examined and we have about 500 to determine none could be abolished, such as one- or two-man agencies or some consolidated with larger ones, et cetera. Mr. Kleindienst said that must be a proper time to do all the time, and I said it was but it is more intensive as a result of the Cuba matter. I said we had there a seven-man office and the former Resident Agent did not observe the security regulations. Mr. Tolson Mr. DeLoach and I sent one of my Assistant Directors, in charge of the Security Division, to investigate. (u)

Memorandum for Messrs. Tolson and Bishop

to Media and he found the safe half empty and all the documents that had been stolen had been in the desk drawers and there is a rule that all records should be in a safe at night. Mr. Kleindienst said that he had no objection. I agreed and said I suspended the man for 30 days and transferred him to Atlanta and I have had an avalanche of calls from Federal Judges, and Chiefs of Police as to what a fine man he is. Mr. Kleindienst said a couple of Congressmen from Pennsylvania called him and he told them he did not know the facts but if discipline was taken, it was warranted. I said that I should have done was to dismiss him with prejudice, but he has been in the service a long time and is a good investigator, but he completely ignored the requirement of locking things up in the safe and the burglar got into the safe although they went through the desks. I said for that violation I suspended him for 30 days and transferred him to Atlanta. I said I had received calls from Congressmen and Senators and a Federal Judge and in each instance I have answered them and I had the Special Agent in Charge at Philadelphia, who is in charge of Media, go to see the individual to explain the details and I said all have expressed complete satisfaction. Mr. Kleindienst said he thought this was reasonable disciplinary action. I said I thought it was compassionate, and Mr. Kleindienst agreed, adding that his long service was taken into account. I said he did not give a damn for security. Mr. Kleindienst said he would bet the rest would not. (u)

I said I had a survey made last week of every Resident Agency to see which could be closed, consolidated, or combined into the local government office and we are doing that at the present time, however, we have only re-evaluated them each year, but in view of Media, I thought we should take more direct action now and some are being closed and consolidated with other offices and others will be continued where they are needed and there is enough work to warrant it, but as to the one-man offices, I think in some places they were created for the convenience of the Agent. I said for example, on Santa Island there is a Resident Agency with three men whom we call the "Three Musketeers" and all of our cars have radios so we do not need to have a Resident Agency there as the Agents can work out of the car. I said that we would not have the problem of Agents working out of the car, supervision and having to rent space in private buildings. I said that while all are being continued, we are installing burglar alarms which are connected with the local police, but by consolidating the offices and reducing the number, you reduce the possibility of this sort of thing happening again. I said take for example the Congressman [redacted] and when a report was taken in the burglary in Media. I said when [redacted] at, I had a man go up and see Congressman House and [redacted] had been in Paris and the French authorities reported her as [redacted] belonging to disturbing elements in Paris and then she returned to the country and she belonged to the Students for a Democratic Society, which is a left wing militant group, and we told the Congressman [redacted] it, but now that it is public, he has issued a statement for a [redacted] even he is now on a junket that it was wrong to investigate him [redacted] think it was perfectly warranted. [redacted] said just like the three clerks [redacted] working for the peace group that is going to have a parade and [redacted] get out of the peace group or get out of the Bureau. I said [redacted] is an umbrella for the Socialist Workers organization. Mr. [redacted] said they don't belong in the FBI, maybe ISW, but not the SWP. I said the Socialist Workers organization is on the Attorney General's list of subversive organizations and they created this other organization to make a cover for them. I said these three clerks had to make up their minds either to work for the Bureau or the organization. ~~SECRET~~ U

Mr. Kleindienst asked to get back to the inquiry from the New York Times; that they called the Public Information Office and were given the statement they have been using last week and then they came back and if this meant any kind of electronic surveillance with respect to Congress or senators. Mr. Kleindienst said they could just have no further comment, but he was lacking around whether they could get by with that, but the other thing is consensual recording by a device on an individual and there would have been no bug [redacted] to a Congressman's office and leave it at that. The Deputy Attorney General suggested that he put together some limited language on it which we could then discuss and he would call me back. (U)

I said knowing the New York Times, they will try to explore [redacted] and further and mentioned that the fellow who wrote the article in Life, [redacted] in with the New York Times, and Mr. Kleindienst said that was terrible. I said to me what he said about him. I said he is a [redacted] one of the editors. I said there is something [redacted] in Washington and is something I don't understand and I have not [redacted] (U) it to the Antitrust Division, but that is doubtful. I said I had seen many statements whereby the Washington Post, the New York Times, the Los Angeles Times, and the Los Angeles Times all had the same editorial comment. I said they are not owned by the same individual, but they have the same editorial articles in the New York Times, the Washington Post, the Los Angeles Times, the New York Times, the Washington Post and the Los Angeles Times have the same editorial comment. I said we seem to be getting a monopoly which is not good for the public and I don't think it is right. I said it is just like you could control three papers and have the same editorial comment and control the country. I said it is a monopoly of a point of view. I agreed but the editorial comment was not. I said I understand the St. Louis Post Dispatch is controlling the country. I said in due time you would have two dozen papers in the country handling out the same line. (u) (u) (u)

Mr. Kleindienst said to let him try to write down a sentence and he would call me back. (u) (u) (u)

2:30 P.M.

Deputy Attorney General Kleindienst called and read the following suggested statement: "The FBI has never placed an electronic listening device of any kind in the home office or on the telephone of any United States Senator or Congressman." Mr. Kleindienst asked if that admitted to consensual recording and I told him it did not. I said the only question is, is this an electronic device as this thing on a person is an electronic device because the man is wired even though he consented. I said I think United States Attorney Sachs asked us to do it on Howdy. Mr. Kleindienst wondered if that would include electronic device on home or office, as it is not wired and would that mean placing. I said it depends on how you interpret it. (u) (u) (u)

On 4/5/71 Chicago office of the "Los Angeles Times" received through the mail copies of ten documents stolen from Media Resident Agency. Copies obtained and forwarded to the Bureau. The 4/6/71 edition of "The Washington Post" contained article setting out partial contents of and comments on copies of Bureau documents which they claimed to have received in the mail 4/5/71. From review of article, it appears "Post" received same packet of documents as obtained from Chicago. Nine of ten items in packet pertain to work of Domestic Intelligence Division; of these nine, seven had not been previously known stolen.

Assistant Attorney General Mardian has requested that Attorney General be furnished data relative to stolen documents which, if publicized, could be damaging. This information requested so Attorney General could vigorously protest any adverse publicity which may evolve.

Three items, all dated 1968, publicized in 4/6/71 news article related to Philadelphia Division program for developing racial informants. Impetus to program at that time due in part to instructions received from then-Attorney General Ramsey Clark that Bureau use "maximum available resources" to develop all information regarding riot activity. By letter 3/25/71 with Director's approval, we furnished Attorney General with copy of Clark's memorandum of 9/14/67 setting forth these instructions. In response to Director's specific questions about other items mentioned in the 4/6/71 news article, there is being submitted a separate memorandum dated 4/6/71 under the "Medburg" caption.

Attached for Attorney General is letter which forwards succinct resume of seven documents in question. Data relating to other two documents which we had previously identified as stolen has already been furnished to the Attorney General by letter 3/25/71. In attached resume we again point out Clark's instructions regarding the necessity for obtaining racial intelligence information.

Re Atlanta airtels to Bureau dated 4/12, 13/71.

Referenced airtels set forth information concerning one [redacted] who was arrested on 4/12/71 by De Kalb County, Georgia, Vice Squad Detective [redacted] while operating a 1963 Austin Healey Sprite. This vehicle reportedly contained a bag of marijuana and bore a piece of FBI evidence tape U

In reviewing events which occurred prior to the burglary of the Media RA, SA GEORGE C. BRIGHT, who was assigned to the RA at the time, recalls the following: U

On 3/7/71 [redacted] the Banghart Sunoco Service Station, Burmont and Township Line, Drexel Hill, Pa., placed a brown envelope, approximate size 5" x 6", in the mail slot of the Media RA. SA BRIGHT opened this envelope and determined it was from [redacted] requested of SA BRIGHT to determine if the contents, appearing in a smaller size paper envelope, was "marijuana." U

SA BRIGHT advised there six or seven green stalks of what appeared to be "weed" 1/8" in thickness and 6" in length. There was no notice or to suggest this material might be marijuana. The pipe was placed in a filing cabinet and arrangements made to return it to [redacted] on 3/9/71. (U)

Following the burglary, the pipe was determined to have been missing. No evidence was placed on this envelope by SA BRIGHT and no Glad Sach Bags were in the RA. (U)

It should be noted there was supply of FBI evidence tape in the RA at the time of the burglary. The tape was maintained in a supply cabinet which did appear to have been disturbed by unsubs. Several rolls of evidence tape remained after the burglary, but it could not be determined if one or more rolls might have been taken. (U)

In viewing the photographs of the bag of marijuana in [redacted] possession it would appear the bulk is such to preclude its being the same material as that turned over to the Media RA by [redacted] (U)

You have been previously furnished a copy of an undated memorandum from our Philadelphia (PH) Office to our Cincinnati (CI) Office, entitled [redacted] SM-YSA," which had been surfaced as having been stolen from our Resident Agency at Media, Pennsylvania. For ready reference, I am enclosing another copy and I am as well furnishing a copy to the Deputy Attorney General and to the Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division. U

The "Washington Post" of April 12, 1971, publicized the surfacing of what appears to be the above-described document in an article headlined "Sometimes Without Their Knowledge - FBI Files Reveal Relatives Used As Informants." The article highlighted the fact that an Agent of this Bureau had contacted [redacted] under pretext. U

The facts relating to our interest in [redacted] are as follows: During the 1969-70 academic school year at Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, the Young Socialist Alliance (youth arm of the Trotskyist Socialist Workers Party) rented a post office box for mailing purposes. After the person who rented the box left Athens, a [redacted] handled the mail being received through this box as well as received mail of her own through the box. Inquiry revealed that a [redacted] 1969-70; home address [redacted] Pennsylvania. In addition, a self-admitted Young Socialist Alliance member at Ohio University had given as a character reference the name of [redacted] Ohio University. Limited, discreet inquiries were initiated at [redacted] Pennsylvania, and Athens, Ohio, to determine the background of [redacted] and in what, if any, subversive activities she might be involved. When no further subversive information was developed concerning [redacted] our case was closed in February, 1971.

You have been previously advised that the Department has been endeavoring to develop sufficient evidence to warrant a superseding indictment of subjects in this case for conspiracy to destroy Selective Service records. One of these cases relate to the break-in of the Selective Service Board at Philadelphia, 2-7-70, which involved so-called members of the original East Coast Conspiracy to Save Lives (ECCSL). Two of these individuals were listed on a leaflet handed out by the ECCSL members claiming credit for this break-in as [redacted]

These individuals have since married and have been residing in Bangor, Maine. Inasmuch as [redacted] and his wife have been disassociated from Eastcon adherents since moving to Maine, Departmental Attorneys, [redacted] on Friday, 4-2-71, interviewed them at their residence at Bangor, Maine, as witnesses in the conspiracy to destroy Selective Service records in Philadelphia on 2-7-70. On 4-7-71, [redacted] advised that [redacted] made certain admissions during his interview implicating himself in the aforementioned draft board break-in and promised to contact him by today as to whether he would be a cooperative witness in this matter. [redacted] advised that inasmuch as he had not received any word from [redacted] he telephonically determined from [redacted] employer that [redacted] resigned his position due to a personal emergency on 4-4-71. He said he also determined that the [redacted] residence telephone has been apparently disconnected. U

EX-114 REC-68 32-94527-1075
For the information of the General Investigative Division, a review of the Selective Service file concerning the Philadelphia draft board break-in on 2-7-70 (25-608693) would indicate that a [redacted] possibly [redacted] involved in that break-in, was knowledgeable as to drilling or picking of locks. [redacted] is also a former resident of Philadelphia and Media, Pennsylvania, and should, therefore, be considered a suspect in the MEDBURG case. U

John Peter Grady

John Peter Grady was born on August 15, 1925, at Bronx, New York (NY), and resides with his wife and children at 855 East 233rd Street, Apartment 10B, Bronx, NY. He attended Manhattan College, Bronx, NY, and operates the Resistance Book Distributors, 661 East 219th Street, Bronx, NY, an anti-war book distributor, attempting to establish bookstores on college campuses. He is also chairman of "The Defense Committee", same address, the purpose of which is to raise funds for the legal defense of the Catonsville Nine and to finance other unspecified anti-war activities. U

Grady is a close personal friend of Phillip and Daniel Berrigan, and has contact with many persons throughout the East Coast Conspiracy to Save Lives (ECCSL). U

Grady was reported as having been in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on March 8, 1971. U

It is believed that Grady is in a position to furnish information concerning the activities of members of the ECCSL, particularly members in the Philadelphia area. U

FBI Checking Left Catholics In Media Thefts

By Vin McLellan
Special to The Washington Post

BOSTON—The FBI has concentrated the investigation into the theft of about 1,000 documents from its Media, Pa., office on the militant non-violent Roman Catholic movement that is centered mainly in Washington, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Boston.

The Citizens Commission to Investigate the FBI has claimed credit for the March 8 burglary. It had mailed separate packets of Xeroxed copies of the documents—31 documents to date—to newsmen, politicians and radical groups. The FBI effort, specifically, has focused upon the defense support organization for the Harrisburg, Pa., conspiracy trial of the Rev. Philip Berrian and five others who were indicted in January for allegedly conspiring to blow up the heating systems of some government buildings in Washington, and to kidnap presidential adviser Henry Kissinger.

Seven other persons were named as co-conspirators but were not indicted.

Although none of the six defendants has reported being questioned directly, several have acknowledged that they know of federal agents' efforts to fix their whereabouts in the first two weeks of March and on the day of the Media raid.

The Rev. Neil McLaughlin, one of the defendants in the Harrisburg case, said in Baltimore that he does not know of any defendant being questioned directly.

"Indirectly, however," he added, "they've been very thorough. Federal agents inquired of the people who live with me where I was on the date of the Media break, and they were told that I and Joe Wenderoth (the Rev. Joseph Wenderoth, another defendant), had been at a conference at Notre Dame University. And then they had agents check with the people we were with at Notre Dame to verify it."

"I feel very uneasy about the links that have been made in some of the media associating our indictments with the Media case," Father McLaughlin said.

A report published in The Philadelphia Daily News quoted "federal investigators" as saying that the stolen files contained crucial documents in the case against the Harrisburg defendants and that these papers are now in the hands of the Berrian associates.

"We don't know who did it," Father McLaughlin said, "and we haven't been contacted by them. To be honest, I just don't know anything at all about them."

In addition to agents' investigation of Catholic radicals, the bureau's laboratory has disclosed that copies of the Media documents were duplicated on one of three models in the Xerox 660-series copying machines.

While by one unofficial estimate there are more than 200,000 of the 660-model machines in use in the United States and as many as 2,000 in the Boston area alone, the FBI has been visiting Boston owners of the 660-model series to get sample copies.

Each copier, according to Xerox experts, leaves on its copies distinctive marks that correspond to imperfections on the light-sensitive selenium drum that is a major element in the Xerography process.

Laboratory comparison of the samples and the copies of stolen documents could pinpoint, experts say, the machine on which the stolen papers were copied.

Gerald A. Mulligan, manager of public relations operations for Xerox Corp., at their Rochester, N.Y., headquarters, acknowledged that the corporation complied with the bureau's request for a list of customers who lease the 660-series machines.

Mulligan said Xerox "... decided at the very highest level" not to provide laboratory samples of the different sorts of copy images produced by the three models in the 660 series.

The 660-series copiers are relatively low-volume (660 copies per hour), table-top units and are used primarily in small offices. Although Mulligan said Xerox gave the FBI "the list of 660-model owners, period," federal agents in the Boston area reportedly are also working from a selected list of 660-series machines that had unusually high-volume runs for the month of March.

Xerox collects meter readings from each machine monthly for billing purposes, computerizes them and disseminates this information to salesmen.

In Boston, sources in the Catholic antiwar movement say FBI agents have questioned most of the leading members of the activist Catholic community directly.

The Rev. Jack White, who is involved largely in social action work, and the Rev. Anthony Melaney, who is involved in the Catholic antiwar movement, said agents have questioned them.

In Washington, Sister Beverly Bell, one of the seven alleged co-conspirators in the Harrisburg case, said that she had been questioned and investigated about her whereabouts in early March.

Herb Held, Baltimore coordinator for the Harrisburg Defense Committee, said that right after the Media break-in and since "the FBI has been swarming all over this city. They've contacted virtually everyone in the militant Catholic movement."

In New York, Sue Susman of New York's Harrisburg Defense Committee said that last week federal agents visited the Jesuit theologate at Woodstock, in New York City, at least 10 times asking members about the activities of some of the known Catholic activists among them. Agents have been following some members of her community on a 24-hour basis, she said.

Two weeks ago two FBI agents searched the New York home of Kathleen Murphy, 75-year-old mother of the Rev. Edward A. Murphy, a Jesuit priest who recently moved from Boston to New York to work full-time at the national headquarters of the Harrisburg Defense Committee.

When Mrs. Murphy said she didn't know anything about the Media raid, the agents asked her if she had seen her son carrying any documents around the house.

Receiving a negative answer to that, they proceeded to search her five-room Bronx flat after she signed a paper saying they did not need a warrant.

Father Murphy said yesterday that the agents opened dresser and desk drawers in all rooms and opened suitcases, saying they were looking for copies of the stolen documents.

SUBJECT: MEDBURG

In connection with attached article from the April 15, 1971, "Washington Post," SAC, Philadelphia, and ASAC, Boston, in the absence of the SAC, each advised today that in all instances where news inquiries have been received, they have been answered with "no comment" and absolutely no information has been volunteered to the press. This policy will continue. U

With further reference to the attached article, it is noted the article is based upon speculation, falsehoods, anonymous sources, and data obtained by newspaper reporters from individuals who we are investigating to determine what part they may have played in the burglary of our Media Resident Agency. U

For example, the article quotes "federal investigators" as saying the stolen files contain crucial documents concerning the Berrigan case. Our Philadelphia Office has determined no such documents were taken from the Media Resident Agency. U

52-94527-1081

In addition, the article states that "the bureau's laboratory has disclosed that copies of the Media documents were duplicated on one of three models in the Xerox 660-series copying machines." This is again completely inaccurate since the determination that a 660 Xerox machine was used in copying the stolen documents was made by Xerox technicians in Rochester, New York, not by our Laboratory. U

ACTION: Attached for approval is a teletype to offices involved in the MEDBURG investigation reiterating instructions that all inquiries from the press or other outside sources concerning this case should be answered with "no comment." U

FROM : SA KENNETH K. SHYTHE
SUBJECT: NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF BLACK
STUDENTS CONVENTION
WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY
DETROIT, MICHIGAN, 6/26-7/5/70
RM

DATE: 6/17/70

The National Association of Black Students (NABS) is headquartered in Washington, D.C. It was formed in August, 1969, when Black Students split from the National Students Association. The National Coordinator for NABS is on the AI.

NABS has announced its first convention scheduled for June 26-July 5, 1970, at Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan.

The Bureau has requested that each Field Division canvass logical informants to locate NABS chapters and representatives.

The Bureau is also desirous of having informants, in a logical position to do so, attend the convention.

Any information about NABS activity, the scheduled convention, or an informant in a position to attend the convention, should be brought to the attention of the #9 squad supervisor.

Mrs. Christine Speer, a candidate for the Ph.D degree this summer at the University of Pennsylvania Graduate School, will become dean of William Smith College July 1. Dr. Allan A. Kuusisto, president of Hobart and William Smith College, made the announcement March 24.

"Dean Speer brings to us an excellent combination of youth and youthful vitality with experience both in academic and student activities," Dr. Kuusisto said.

Mrs. Speer's background includes teaching at the college level, as well as work as a substitute teacher in the ghetto area for the Philadelphia public schools. She has also been a teaching assistant at Phillips Academy.

Two and a half years ago she was assistant director of Hill Hall, a residence for 675 undergraduate women, at the University of Pennsylvania and assistant to the dean of women where she engaged in counseling, policy making and supervisory responsibilities.

Earlier, she had been senior resident advisor at Hill Hall on the dean of women's staff and counselor to 63 undergraduate women. She spent the summer of 1967 as housemistress at the Andover summer session at Phillips Academy.

She took her baccalaureate degree at Wellesley College in 1967, and added the master's at the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences of the University of Pennsylvania a year later. Her Ph.D. work has been done in American Civilization with a "A" average. Her dissertation is "City on a Hill, a Study of Social and Demographic Change in Salem, Mass., 1630-1685."

She was a four year University Fellow at the University of Pennsylvania and held a Fellowship in the summer of 1968 for the Winterthur Museum course in American Colonial Decorative Arts through the University of Delaware.

Mrs. Speer is a member of the Organization of American Historians, the American Historical Association, the Historical Society of Pennsylvania and the National Association of Women Deans and Counselors.

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CPS) - Copies of stolen Federal Bureau of Investigation documents released here March 23 reveal an extensive pattern of surveillance of campus and black activist organizations, including, in one instance, the local police chief, the postmaster, letter carriers, campus security guards and a switchboard operator.

A clandestine group calling itself the Citizens Commission to Investigate the FBI sent copies of 14 FBI papers, on government stationery marked "United States Government Memorandum," to Sen. George McGovern (D., S.D.) and Rep. Parren J. Mitchell (D., Md.). Both McGovern and Mitchell sent their copies immediately back to the FBI without releasing the information, but THE WASHINGTON POST secured copies of the documents and broke the story, publishing a highly edited version.

The Justice Department says there is no question the documents are copies of files stolen in a burglary of the FBI's Media,

Has The F.B.I. Got Your Number?

On pages 1, 4, and 5 of this issue, the HERALD reprints documents which it received in the mail earlier this week. We believe these to be copies of the documents stolen from the F.B.I. offices in Philadelphia on March 8, 1971. Some of them are reprinted here as a service to readers who may be interested in the pervasiveness of United States investigative agencies.

The HERALD urges students to be aware of the nature of government investigation and surveillance. One of the stolen documents indicates that the F.B.I. is attempting to infiltrate Black Student Unions on all college campuses. The HERALD wonders: does the F.B.I. plan to obtain informers from the Third World Coalition and other "suspect" or radical groups on this campus? We recall that Tommy Traveler first appeared here with the old Hobart Student Movement. The F.B.I. apparently considers Black Student Unions and similar organizations to be threats to our society.

Another document indicates that all U.S. citizens who travel to the U.S.S.R. for longer than thirty days are investigated for anti-American political activity. Another document, sent by an Idaho scoutmaster to the Russian Embassy in Washington, turns up in F.B.I. files in Philadelphia.

When Frank Donner spoke at the Colleges last term, he indicated that at least 25 million Americans have dossiers in investigative agencies. This seems rather cowardly for the "land of the free and the home of the brave." The time is now for Americans to speak out against the ever-increasing Big Brotherism in the country. Consider the documents presented in this issue, the Berrigan case, increased legal wiretapping, Tommy Traveler, and the awesome power of J. Edgar Hoover. We cannot wait until the telescreens are installed.

The Caps and Gowns Note

Members of the Class of 1971 received a most interesting note from Mr. Beretta via the mass mail and the facilities of the Hobart post office. In the usual business memo style it was addressed to all seniors regarding the previously unmentioned subject of caps and gowns for June 13. Just watch it as it flows:

"All Hobart (forgetting William Smith) seniors participating in Commencement on Sunday, June 13 will be wearing caps and gowns."

A rather clear-cut statement one must say! How about those in the class who might not want to wear one? Will the failure to heed this order from on high result in the denial of a diploma? But wait, it gets better:

"Your cap and gown has (sic) been added to your term bill."

A fait accompli! It has been paid for and therefore you will wear it!

"Permission to be absent and obtaining a refund must be approved by the Dean."

The wearing of the cap and gown is no longer an obligatory expected formality. One doesn't need a new outrage from the White House to invoke as a reason for not wearing this paper uniform. The garments of graduation represent academic tradition and ritual at its worst. They are an expression of a college existence that went out with goldfish gulping and racoon coats. As a school Hobart has, in the last four years, significantly separated itself from many of the trappings of olde academia such as required courses and parietals. The orders from Maj. Beretta smack of four years ago: treating the graduating seniors like a group of helpless first graders that can only act in unison.

When my class arrived in Geneva in September, 1967, a Hobart publication assured us that "You are like no one else." That noble phrase begins to ring hollow when one contemplates the sea of blue caps and gowns now scheduled for June 13. At our graduation only our shoes and faces will be distinctive, and the latter will be obscured by tassels. The HERALD urges all seniors to consider the alternative of either no gown or a personally decorated one to avoid the mass conformity. Might not a senior class meeting be a good place to begin?

Eulogy For The Elms

If you walk now along the ridge below Trinity Hall and look toward the library, something is missing.

As you move past Cox Hall you now suddenly notice that the north wall of Gulick is unobstructed.

While we were away this campus lost something. Not a noted professor or an appealing course but trees; stong, dominant elm trees whose bared rings speak tales of years and years of Hobart and William Smith.

The cause of death is the dreaded Dutch Elm disease which is doing to trees what the black plague once did to Europe. The surgeons, those without an M.D. who know of tree diseases, said the arbors were beyond cure.

Without questioning this medical evidence, the HERALD hopes the community shares its sorrow over the loss of these many trees. The library and Saga were not the only areas affected. Huge flat tree stumps are everywhere. Some parts of the campus look like the floor of an olde butcher shoppe.

To die just before the Spring may be a literary cliché, but it's always tragedy to miss an annual rebirth. One cannot imagine how many times these trees received like a pie in the face the impact of a snowball, caught a softball hit foul into one of its branches, sheltered a couple showing their affection on a late May night.

We understand that a Trustee has provided for new trees to be planted in place of the dear departed. The HERALD hopes we can all be around in thirty-five years to see the fruits of these labors. But for now, the campus seems less protected and uncomfortably bare for the eyes.

Letters To The Editor

Reply To "Concerned"

To the Editor:

Last week this newspaper printed a letter from a student who claimed to be concerned about "a certain situation on campus". It seems that the Colleges are about to be overrun by a bunch of unqualified nincompoops who are "lowering the standards" of this magnificent institution. And in spite of all this, the Administration continues to "waste" money and make allowances for "these people".

This letter appears to have been directed at the Black and Puerto Rican students on this campus. So let's review some of the "allowances" which the Colleges have made for the Minority students. It seems to us that there are certain people in the Administration who believe that the Black and Puerto Rican students have no right to be on this campus. In order to "justify" our presence here, they have come up with the notion that we are here to "educate" the whites. They have fallen back upon the old, worn-out, but all too prevalent idea that people of color exist in this society primarily as a functional tool for the white population. In other words, we are here so that the white boys and girls can rush home and say, "Gee-Mom, I met some real live Niggers and Spics!"

To add to this insult, we are constantly being victimized by the ugly rumor that we are inferior to the "regular students" on this campus. And the Colleges have made "allowances" for this situation as well. They have sent out "Evaluation Forms" to the instructors of most of the Minority students in order to provide the Dean's Committee with "relevant information" on these students. These evaluation forms give one the distinct feeling that Big Brother is watching over you, and if you make one false move, he will vamp down upon you, evaluations in hand, and swallow you up. These forms are psychologically damaging to the student because they reinforce the vicious lie of Third World inferiority, and they give the student the idea that the Colleges have little faith in our ability to "make it" here.

Yet we cannot understand how such a cruel, mean, and diabolical plan could be devised by supposedly "enlightened" administrators of a "liberal" institution. For those who claim to have "proof" of the inferiority of the Black and Puerto Rican students, we submit that if you were tested on facts dealing with our cultures, you too would be branded as being inferior. In other words, what we have here is a conflict of cultures -- not the innate inferiority of an entire people. This is the primary reason why Black and Puerto Rican people are striving to gain control of the schools in their community. When this struggle has been won, the youth of the Third World will no longer be subjected to the racism of an alien culture, but will attend schools which reflect their culture and their society.

Now we are sure that some of you are wondering that if some of the Black and Puerto Rican students are disaffected and dissatisfied why are we here? Let us say first of all, that this is an irrelevant, absurd, uncivilized, and typically American response. You had best concern yourselves not with why we are here, but with the actions we might take as a result of our being here. We seek not to "lower the standards" of this institution, but to elevate it by making it more human.

Reply II

To the Editors:

This is in reply to a letter in the March 5 issue of the HERALD entitled "Concerned Student".

My Dear Mr. or Miss Concerned Student:

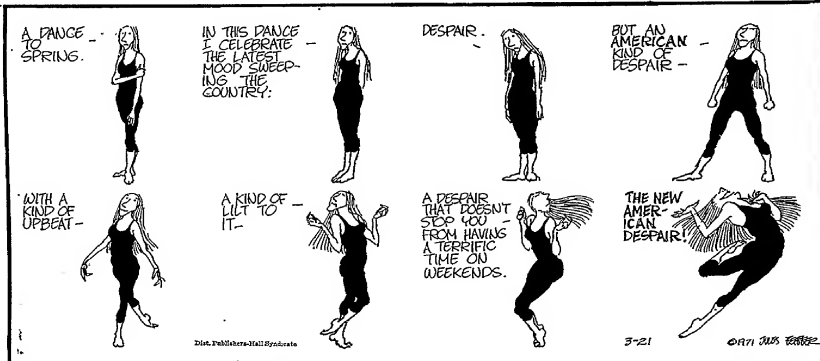

This is a reply to your somewhat ignorant letter. When you say, and I quote, "People are too afraid to speak their mind about how they feel about a certain situation on campus. They should be able to speak without the fear of being shouted down, mocked, or threatened. I will do this in this letter." So what? You spoke your mind, but whose mind is it? I think it is the narrow mind of a nameless coward who feared being shouted down, or mocked, and you are a threat to yourself and everyone around you. In my mind, because of your cowardly nature, you deserve to be mocked and shouted down; thus, I will proceed to do so.

If I were you and I were so worried about the colleges wasting so much money, as you stated, "...taking in students with less academic qualifications than the regular students and making allowances for them. This is a waste of the colleges' money." I would start with a small matter like not taking up space in the school paper with worthless words.

As long as people like you are brazen enough to write, but too cowardly to stand behind their rhetorical gibberish, the colleges cannot and will never be any better, but will become increasingly worse. You and your type are the only ones lowering the standards.

I close on this note: If you are so worried about the standards of these colleges, please do us all a favor, and spare us the nonsense of your elementary thinking and rhetoric; most of all, mind your own business!

Academic Affairs Report

Faculty Academic Affairs Committee March 12, 1971
Hobart and William Smith Colleges Cox 21

Present: Mr. Bentsen, Mr. Campbell, Miss Hedden, Mr. Kelly, Mr. O'Laughlin, Mr. Springer, Mr. McKean, Mr. Thompson, Cloutier, Mr. Taylor, Miss Hawthorne, Miss Knauft, Miss Brewer

Mr. McKean announced that the Curriculum Commission has formed a sub-committee designed to get the Baccalaureate Essay off the ground. An essay contest will be run this year.

Mr. Enright, Mr. Bolkosky, Mr. Krause, Mr. Thompson and Mr. Smith appeared at the Committee's request to discuss the progress of an future plans for their course, "Politics of Liberation." Mr. Kelly asked them to explain how the proposed third term would be a culminating experience and Mr. O'Laughlin asked them to comment on the density and quantity of the material to be covered. No very extensive or forceful answers were forthcoming, and so the issues were not pressed. Approval for a third term was granted without dissenting vote.

After the vote Mr. O'Laughlin expressed his opinion that the course has been a light enterprise, not a dense or rigorous endeavor and that he does not want to see such a thing happen again.

Next, Mr. Spear's African History 381 was considered for approval. The question arose as to whether or not a final examination would be given. It was felt that Mr. Huff should tell Mr. Spears that notification must be sent to this Committee if the final exam is to be waived. The course was approved without dissenting vote.

The remainder of the meeting was spent in examining new course proposals. Comments of the Committee are recorded directly on those proposals.

It was felt that Judith Merrill should be asked to appear at the March 29 meeting to more fully inform the Committee of the nature of her course in language teaching.

Meeting adjourned 6:15 p.m.

Larry Campbell, Secretary

Our Man Hoppe - Hiram's Democracy

A new era in American foreign relations dawned with the overwhelming election in 1972 of Hiram Farquhar to the White House.

Farquhar was by far and away the most honest and patriotic Presidential candidate the Nation had ever seen. But what endeared him to all factions was his shining love of Democracy. No President had ever loved democracy more.

It thus came as no surprise that in his Inaugural Address, President Farquhar, like his predecessors, pledged to keep bombing the smithereens out of Vietnam.

"As every President in the past decade has made clear," he said, "the sole reason we are in Vietnam is to insure that the Vietnamese people are able to choose their own leaders in free and democratic elections. As one who worships democracy, they have my promise that they'll get it -- if we have to go on bombing them for another 50 years."

The very next day, the South Vietnamese Ambassador, Wone Gho Hoam, called on the new President.

"Sir," he said nervously, "I wish to express the gratitude of my peoples for all the bombs you are lavishing on us to bring us democracy. But we feel we are being selfish."

"Selfish?" said the President, surprised.

"There are so many nations, big and small, that don't have democracy these days," said the Ambassador with a hopeful smile. "Why pick on us?"

"By George, you're right!" cried the President. And he called a meeting of his National Security Council. "Gentlemen," he said, "which countries have democracy and which countries need it?"

"Well, sir," said the Secretary of State, "Greece is ruled by a junta, Spain by the Falangists, Haiti by Papa Doc . . ."

"Greece, the ancient seat of democracy, doesn't have it?" said the President, aghast. "Spain, the land of Goya and Hemingway? Our lovely Haitian neighbors? How could we have forsaken these beloved Free World allies?"

"Well, sir," said the Defense Secretary, frowning, "what with the war in Vietnam . . ."

"What's good for the Vietnamese is certainly good for the Greeks, the Spaniards and the Haitians," snapped the President. And he ordered three new invasions forthwith.

The public, which had approved of fighting for democracy in Vietnam, naturally approved of fighting for it in Greece, Spain and Haiti. All might have gone well had not a White House aide (some suspect he was a Communist agent) slipped the President a list of other allies who were undemocratic.

U.S. invasions of Portugal, Iran, Taiwan and 13 African nations followed. As for South America, the problem there seemed so monumental, the President finally decided it could be solved only with 27 thermonuclear bombs.

World War III appeared imminent. For the President had discovered Soviet Russia wasn't a true democracy. "Dispatch all remaining troops and aircraft to attack Moscow," he ordered grimly.

All remaining troops, both of them, were warming up their Piper cub when Mrs. Farquhar said, "But, dear, the Russians are our enemies. Isn't democracy too good for them?" And, fortunately, the invasion was called off.

The Free World, however, was a shambles. Martial law prevailed for decades everywhere until democracy once again blossomed forth, as it usually does, of its own accord.

President Farquhar, disgraced, was succeeded by President Mark Hawkins, who wisely pledged to "preserve democracy at home and fight for it abroad only in those nations we don't like."

Letters Continued Politics Of Liberation I

Dear Mr. Campbell:

I have had the occasion to review the "minutes" of the Academic Affairs Committee meeting of March 12 concerning our defense of the third term Politics of Liberation course. It has always been my impression that the function of a committee secretary was to record what happened at a meeting, not to editorialize about the opinions presented there. Nonetheless, your minutes utterly distort what took place at that meeting by choosing to not report anything said by myself and my colleagues and commenting instead that "no very extensive or forceful answers were forthcoming, and so the issues were not pressed." This comment not only characterizes the value of anything we said (without, of course, quoting or paraphrasing it) but also presumes to pass judgment on the motivations of your colleagues on the committee (some of whom may have found our responses "extensive" or "forceful"). In addition, Mr. Ross Smith made some remarks regarding the motivation of your committee's interest in our course which were also excluded from your minutes.

The line of questioning your committee adopted was a ludicrous as anything you have done this year -- a hard assertion to back up considering your denial of students' votes, your wasting half your time on "Latin Praise" and your pandering to the cynical evasions of department chairmen wishing to destroy the new curriculum. Obviously, no one on the committee had any familiarity with the material to be presented in our course, its "density" or its "quality," or its relation to the previous two terms -- or to anything else for that matter. Nor were they interested in listening to any serious discussion of the course. It was solely an exercise in pompous academic bullshit, conducted for the gratification of the committee's collective ego. Only persons as intellectually myopic as yourselves could interpret it otherwise.

If you and your committee wish to destroy Hobart and Wm. Smith by enshrining the kind of irrelevant drivel currently practiced as the modicum of education, then proceed. But at least have the honesty to accurately record what you are doing.

Sincerely yours

John R. Krause, Jr.

Politics Of Liberation II

TO: Academic Affairs Committee with a copy to The Herald

FROM: S. Bolkosky

Once again I am reluctantly in the position of defending an academic enterprise which should need no defense. Yet the Politics of Liberation has been consistently attacked, mocked and maligned by faculty, both individually and in committee. I am weary of these ignorant, pedantic criticisms. They have continued since last spring and finally need a public response. The last in this line was what I hope to have been our final encounter with Academic Affairs Committee.

Before the Fall Term began we submitted an eleven page syllabus to that committee. In that document we went to great pains to clearly explain the structure and academic coherence of the projected three terms. Apparently the explanation has been lost, ignored, or misunderstood after two terms have been completed. Any of the ten faculty members involved would defend the intellectual integrity of the bibliography. So too would they testify to the serious discussion and discipline of the discussion groups. The course was not a "light exercise." We were berated for too lengthy a reading list in term one; now for term three, we are told that one book per week is too "light."

Faculty and most students would agree, I think, that it was an exceptionally worthwhile, rigorous intellectual experience. I have not heard why Academic Affairs considers it an unworthy, non-"gutsy" facade. The only "friendly" group to discuss the course with any of us was the Curriculum Commission. Unlike the Academic Affairs Committee, they were aware of its experimental (at least for Hobart and William Smith) nature. They were concerned about the success of an interdisciplinary, free-wheeling, relaxed yet stringent teaching and learning experience. There was a good deal of struggling and agonizing over the practical applications of these ideas. The Curriculum Commission expressed particular concern about these. A course based on mutual trust between students and faculty -- not unlike a tutorial -- can be a frightening prospect. After several weeks of setting ground rules and finally realizing the serious goals of the course, it became a rewarding and integrating experience. It worked -- although each week was an ordeal for many. The ordeal was based upon an awareness by all of a mutual dependence. I have rarely, if ever, seen such concentration and desire to understand some extremely complex material. Arguments, discussion, debate -- sometimes (not nearly every time) we even approached a dream seminar, with total and relevant participation. Without blowing our own horn, Academic Affairs, the method worked. You may rest easy that tutorials and colloquia can succeed. I suspect you will not be faced with the unpleasant dilemma of approving courses like ours again. They may very well happen in spite of you.

There was some shock in our recent "trial", especially in light of the new curriculum. It was a sobering thought, however, that several members of Academic Affairs had voted against the curriculum reform. I seem to remember being charged by the Curriculum Commission to keep Academic Affairs informed of our progress. They seemed to think it was essential to observe our successes and failures, not in order to pass judgment, but to learn with us about educational experiments of this type. Take heart, Academic Affairs, only one more term and Politics of Liberation will be gone. Then you'll only have to worry about a whole new curriculum.

Respectfully,

Sidney Bolkosky

Politics Of Liberation III

To the Editors:

Dear Academic Affairs:

This is to thank you for allowing me and some friends to offer special studies this term without teaching credit.

I only hope we are worthy of this approval by a group whose wisdom is demonstrated by their ability to judge books they have never read. I promise to strive to reach a "gutsy" synthesis and a dramatic climax.

I feel incredible guilt, insecurity and heartburn that our presentation did not respond to your articulately expressed inquiry. Unfortunately I stood (sat) before you in such awe and trembling that I couldn't understand what you were talking about. Mea culpa.

It was, however, a growth experience and, as a result, I plan this term to add jelly to my peanut butter sandwiches.

Humbly,

Michael McL. Thompson

Politics Of Liberation IV

To the Editor:

I have just learned that some members of the Academic Affairs Committee have promised never to allow another course to be taught here similar to Special Studies 115, 116, 117 (The Politics of Liberation). In view of this, and as one of the instructors in this course, I would like to comment on some of its pertinent aspects. I can personally attest to the academic seriousness and intellectual integrity of the first two terms. But in this letter I wish to address myself specifically to the criticism of the upcoming third term of the course, entitled Third World Peoples. It was attacked by the Committee for its overly light reading load (only eight books), and for the lack of intellectual value to be found in authors such as Frantz Fanon.

For decades this institution has sponsored courses saturated with racism and with a heavily ethnocentric view of Western White Civilization as the only civilization worth studying. Many courses are still taught from this point of view but you will never find Academic Affairs challenging their "intellectual value." It comes as no surprise to me that this institution would be hostile to any views which challenge its tight little world.

However, the defenders of White Civilization on the faculty and in the administration will be able to breathe easier next year. There will be no course like Politics of Liberation, almost all the faculty who taught it will be gone, and there will be fewer Third World students admitted to the Colleges. Hobart and William Smith will again be a refuge where one can escape from the realities of the Twentieth Century. But the respite from conflict will be temporary. In the long run there will be no havens in a society which inflicts so much suffering on so many of the world's people. -- No havens; not even in Geneva, New York.

Sincerely yours,

Joseph Enright

The Homeless Pucksters

To the Editors:

I am simply sick and tired of reading that the hockey team does not have a place to practice. They have an acceptable place to practice but they prefer to sit on their butts crying for someone else to make the ice and maintain it for them.

When I came to work at these colleges two and a half years ago I anticipated being able to make use of the rink which I saw on campus maps and which I naturally assumed was utilized interest or influence in these groups. Open individual cases on officers and key activists in each group to determine background and if their activities warrant active investigation. Submit results of preliminary inquiries in form suitable for dissemination with recommendations regarding active investigations of organization, its leaders, and key activists. These investigations to be conducted in accordance with instructions in Section 87D of the Manual of Instructions regarding investigations of organizations connected with institutions of learning.

Each office submit by airtel to reach Bureau by 12/4/70, a list of BSUs and similar groups by name and school which are or will be subjects of preliminary inquiries. This program will include junior colleges and two-year colleges as well as four-year colleges. In connection with this program, there is a need for increased source coverage and we must develop network of discreet quality sources in a position to furnish required information. Bear in mind that absence of information regarding these groups in any area might be the fault of inadequate source coverage and efforts should be undertaken immediately to improve this coverage.

A prior inquiry or investigation of a group or individual is no bar to current inquiries and inquiries should not be postponed until submission of airtel due 12/4/70. Initiate inquiries immediately.

I cannot overemphasize the importance of expeditious, thorough, and discreet handling of these cases. The violence, destruction, confrontations, and disruptions on campuses make it mandatory that we utilize to its capacity our intelligence-gathering capabilities.

BLACK STUDENT GROUPS ON COLLEGE CAMPUSES
RACIAL MATTERS
BUDED: 12/4/70

Increased campus disorders involving black students pose a definite threat to the Nation's stability and security and indicate need for increase in both quality and quantity of intelligence information on Black Student Unions (BSU) and similar groups which are targets for influence and control by violence-prone Black Panther Party (BPP) and other extremists. The distribution of the BPP newspaper on college campuses and speakers of the BPP and other black extremist groups on campuses clearly indicate that campuses are targets of extremists. Advance information on disorders and violence is of prime importance. We must target informants and sources to develop information regarding these groups on a continuing basis to fulfill our responsibilities and to develop such coverage where none exists.

Effective immediately, all BSUs and similar organizations organized to project the demands of black students, which are not presently under investigation, are to be subjects of discreet, preliminary inquiries, limited to established sources and carefully conducted to avoid criticism, to determine the size, aims, purposes, activities, leadership, key activists, and extremist by the hockey club. I was of course disappointed when I found that the colleges would not maintain it. They certainly should and I sent letters to the president and the board of trustees telling them so. But I am much more disappointed at the failure of the club to go ahead and do it themselves. The club is large enough so that with a little organization the amount of work falling to any one person would not be great. Interested members of the community could also be enlisted. Every winter that I have been here the weather has been suitable to provide at least a month and a half of good ice. Much of the time rain and melting snow have provided natural ice on the rink which then only needed a little scraping and refinishing.

When I read that players do not show up for the games and when I see the rink unused, I can only conclude that most of the club simply does not have the kind of crazy dedication that I have always associated with hockey aficionados. I suspect that the club has a bad case of rich prep schoolitis. No wonder they lose. They probably have to play against hungry rink rats who love the game.

Some Answers Needed

Dear HERALD Editors:

I'm sure that you are working on a story about the present maid situation around here, and I don't mean to interfere with your way of going about things, but I just wonder if you have all the angles covered? I don't mean to imply that I don't trust you, it's just that this article could mean a great deal to the 12 women who have already been fired if it is pithy enough and questions raised rather than the superficial answers given.

Attached is the copy of a circular posted on the Hill. Questions for the administration are: What is this great economic crisis? (Who has mismanaged what?) Why is it necessary to fire 12 when it is a very well known fact that jobs are impossible to come by now in Geneva? Why couldn't all maids be cut to 4 hours a day equally? (Some work 6 and 7.) Why aren't the firings on the basis of seniority or quality of work? Why is it only women who are fired when it is legendary that it is the men who do no work? Ever see the Bathroom in Medbery A section? Is this thing sexist? And don't let them give you any crap about the students having voted for it. At Hobart there was no referendum (required for the riddance of ROTC) and at William Smith there was no vote at all. Why was the damn thing perpetrated over vacation? I suggest specifically because students would not be here to protest the immorality of the thing. 12 women, with two weeks' notice? How much money is being saved anyway, and where is it going?

And furthermore, what about the shit they always give us about a contract. The students have contracted and paid for maid service. The issue is not that we as upper-middle-class parasites can't do our own cleaning, but that we ought to use our contractual rights to discover the truth of the situation and help the maids if we can.

Please demand answers from the people who are responsible. It's the only way we'll ever get this thing in the open. The maids know a lot, so does MacIntyre.

Thanks,
Judy Suchow

OFFICIAL BULLETIN

DATE: March 17, 1971
REDUCTION IN MAID SERVICE

For reasons of economy, maid service in student bedrooms at both Colleges will be discontinued at the beginning of the Spring term. Cleaning services will continue to be provided as hitherto in all lounges, hallways, bathrooms and kitchen areas. Cleaning equipment will be available for student use.

No On Notes

To the Editor:

I found your note at the bottom of David Wright's letter (Herald Letters to the Editor, March 5, 1971) extremely disappointing. You missed the whole point. Why do the Black Panthers establish such a platform so limited in respect to its beneficiaries? Sure, Blacks have been and are being repressed, but so are other ethnic groups, economic groups, and political groups. I understand it is very difficult for anyone to prevent himself from becoming and adopting, at least in practice, the tactics of those whom you condemn -- you want revenge. That is what the Black Panthers are doing with regards to their platform. Why must any group strive to repress every other? The Black Panther Party would receive so much more support with a platform including everyone. People other than Blacks need the benefits of the Black Panther Platform.

Should I form a separatist Polish Party? There are people dying for the White Pussycat Platform, also; police -- or maybe I should translate that for you -- pigs. Like the foolish idealist I am, I looked forward to college as a stimulating experience. I thought I'd be meeting all these aware and concerned individuals, people genuinely disturbed with the state of the world and willing to sacrifice and work in an attempt to ameliorate our universally poor conditions. I find people who can't make it without the unnatural stimulus of drugs and who escape regularly to an euphoric stupor, only to come down and be no better off. What is really humorous is how everyone of us here is living off Middle America and the capitalist practices so often shouted down.

Think about people, transcend your own self and belong to the whole human race. I didn't find David Wright's letter a mockery of the Ten Points but only an attempt to point out a grave deficiency in that platform. Instead of isolating and insulating ourselves, perhaps we could do something original in the history of the human race -- dovetail ourselves together to create, if nothing else, a disjointed whole.

The Food Coop Begins

To the Editors:

The Geneva Food Coop is now open for business. We are operating out of our house at 113 Pulteney St. (initially) and we will be open between 4 and 8 p.m. Monday thru Sunday. The Coop is open to any person or family interested in buying whole foods at economical prices. We have tried to buy all organic foods (some is completely organic; some isn't) -- all of it is natural, thereby free of chemical additives and enriching processes.

In order to get this running well and to pay expenses, we are asking $1.50 membership fee per person or family ($5.00 for fraternities and coop houses). This entitles you to current information about the coop and a voice in its activity and direction. Without your interest and support, the coop cannot continue to function -- we depend on you for our survival, because we are you.

Please remember to bring your own bags and containers for the things you may want to buy.

We now have a limited stock of the following:

coconut	1 lb. $0.48
whole wheat flour	1 lb. .15
rye flour	1 lb. .15
soya flour	1 lb. .20
calymirna figs	1 lb. .80
Turkish raisins	1 lb. .30
Turkish apricots	1 lb. .85
safflower oil	1 qt. 1.00
soy oil	1 qt. .75
sesame tahini	1 lb. .88
clover honey	1 lb. .35
walnuts	1 lb. 1.10
peanuts	1 lb. .37
cashews	1 lb. 1.05
soy beans	1 lb. .15
lentils	1 lb. .20
peanut butter	1 lb. .60
sea salt	1 lb. .15
turbinado sugar	1 lb. .17
wheat germ	1 lb. .20

If you have any questions, call either of us at 781-1373 or come and visit us.

Closed Records?

To the Editors:

I think the College community should be alerted to an incident which happened to me today (Tuesday). I received a letter from the Geneva Police Dept. informing me that a warrant would be issued for my arrest in 10 days if I did not pay off a couple of parking tickets I received in December. Big deal. However, the police somehow got hold of my post office box and residence hall. How did the police get this information? Obviously the College or someone working for the College supplied it.

The parking ticket incident is trivial and unimportant. However, it seems that the police have a very good source(s) of information on the student body here. I question the wisdom of the Colleges' cooperation with the police in such things due to the dangers inherent. This is an isolated incident, but how much other information is being given to the police? This may be the tip of an iceberg. If the police know where each student lives on campus, what other information is being supplied to them? I think the students and faculty should get together and find out just how the police get their information and stop this sort of thing before it becomes more serious. Remember June 5.

Environment...

Glass Recycle Week

Last week, when most students were on vacation, an event of great environmental significance took place in Geneva. The event was the collection of over 20 tons of glass from area residents who participated in Geneva's Glass Recycle Week.

The idea of the glass collection came from Dick Kidder of Hobart's AEA. Organizing for the project began last fall and continued throughout the winter. The AEA not only arranged the collection in town, but also coordinated glass collections which occurred in almost every community in the county. The actual collection of the glass was done entirely by volunteers of all ages. The project was arranged so that while the goals might be considered environmental, the appeal of the project would cut through all levels of the community.

The purpose of the collection was to spark awareness of the solid waste problem now facing our nation. By saving glass in the home the average citizen could see before him (or her) the unexpected amount of glass that is thrown out on a regular basis. It was hoped that enough public interest would be centered on the recycle so that support would be gained for permanent recycling.

We of the AEA are happy to note that a public interest in recycling was established to the degree that we expect a Recycle Center to be operating in Geneva within a month. This site may be able to handle paper and metals in addition to glass. We chose glass for the collection program because of all the materials now being recycled, glass is most economical. However, paper does make up the bulk of our waste and is the cause of much pollution when it is burned.

The reader should be aware that this recycle is a first in the area and marks the most effective project completed this year by AEA. Much remains to be done, however, and you can help. We are having a general meeting this Friday at 7 p.m. in Albright and we will be discussing the projects and plans of AEA. We would like to talk with you...

Sheldon Flory To Preach On Sunday

by Roger Farrand

The Rev. Sheldon Flory, now chaplain at Brown University and formerly rector of Geneva's Trinity Church is scheduled to preach in St. John's Chapel on Sunday at 11 a.m.

A poet and preacher, Rev. Flory has published in The New Yorker and the Hobart Review in addition to doing a gig as padre to the deeper swimming denizens of the Village in between generations. His career has included teaching English and working on a ranch; part of his undergraduate study at the University of Wyoming where he learned to break mustangs and swear in Spanish. He finished at Columbia where he applied these talents.

A Physics Film On Symmetry Monday

Two films, "Symmetry" and "Aspects of Symmetry" will be shown in Albright Auditorium on Monday, April 5 at 8:15 and at 9. "Symmetry" is a film which examines symmetries visually with little narration but with an accompanying score.

"Aspects" shows and discusses the influence of symmetry in the arts and sciences; it is being shown here as a preview before its general release, and viewers will be able to record their reactions for the benefit of the film's makers. These films are being brought to the campus through Prof. Brenton Stearns of the Department of Physics, who describes "Aspects" as "one of the most fascinating general interest films I have seen."

The Nixon Administration Okays College-Based Drug Projects

March 11, 1971

MEMORANDUM

TO: Dean of students
FROM: James M. Spillane
Chief, Drug Education Branch
SUBJECT: Drug Abuse Education Act of 1970

This memorandum is to inform you about a new educational legislation which may be of interest to students as well as faculty of your institution.

On December 3, 1970, President Nixon signed into law the Drug Abuse Education Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-527). Among other activities the new Act authorizes the U.S. Office of Education to support innovative college and university-based drug education projects.

Proposals to conduct projects under the Act may be submitted by recognized student campus organizations or by colleges and universities. It is also possible for a consortium to submit a comprehensive proposal representative of student needs of various institutions. Since the main focus of the projects should be on meeting the needs of students, they must be initiated, designed and directed by students.

The primary emphasis should be on prevention -- i.e., treatment of causes rather than symptoms. It is recognized, however, that services such as hot lines, drop-in centers, counseling and medical aid, may be essential parts of the entire education effort.

Additional information about these new projects and directions for application can be obtained from the Drug Education Branch whose address is given below. We hope you will give this announcement wide circulation on your campus among student groups as well as among interested departments. Preliminary proposals will be due in the office by April 16, 1971.

Program materials can be obtained from:

Drug Education Branch

Thank you for your cooperation.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO

1 MOSCOW, IDAHO 83043

College of Letters and Science

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS

November 4, 1970

Embassy of the U.S.S.R.
Washington,
D.C.

Dear Sirs:

I am writing this letter as the advisor of a group of Explorer Scouts here in Moscow, Idaho. This is a group of boys (ages 15-17) who are interested in camping, conservation, and generally the out-of-doors.

Next Summer, we would like very much to go to the Soviet Union, to travel through your country and meet our counterparts in the U.S.S.R., if possible. What I would like to know is "How do we go about this?"

What we would like to do is to be put in touch with a Komsomol group of similar interest to ours, and to meet Soviet youths on a people to people basis, if we possibly could. We speak Russian fairly well, and are rather knowledgeable on your country.

I personally think that such contacts are by far the best way to promote peace and understanding between our peoples, for as has been said "It is hard to shoot a friend."

We do not, however, have a great deal of money. We have sufficient to get over there and travel around, and are going to have a new four-wheel drive vehicle at our disposal while we are in Europe. We do not have the kind of money required to travel like bourgeois tourists, and besides, that is no way for the boys to meet other boys like themselves.

We would really like, if possible, to arrange to visit a Pioneer camp, or one of the Komsomol facilities. Also, if possible, the boys and I are experienced motion picture photographers, having shot film before for the American Broadcasting Company. If it would be allowed, we would like to film such places to share our experiences with a broader segment of American youth.

That summarizes pretty much what we want to do. What I would like to know is--How do we do it? I assume it is possible, for it must be possible to travel in the Soviet Union on other than a guided tour for fat tourists.

We would like to drive in ourselves, camping if possible, visit as many of our counterparts as possible, entering at the Rumanian border, and exiting to Finland.

Any help you can give in telling me how we can arrange to do something like this would be greatly appreciated. I can write in Russian to the U.S.S.R. easily enough. I only write this letter in English because I don't have a Russian typewriter.

Thanks in advance for your help. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Edition #1

This newsletter will be produced at irregular intervals as needed to keep those persons dealing with New Left problems up to date in an informal way. It is not a serial and is considered an informal routing slip. It should be given the security afforded a Bureau serial, classified confidential, but may be destroyed when original purpose is served.

The New Left conference at SOG 9/10-11/70 produced some comments:

In disseminating reports recommending for the SI it is preferable to designate and disseminate to Secret Service immediately and put the FD-376 (the buck slip to Secret Service) on the second Bureau copy.

There was a pretty general consensus that more interviews with these subjects and hangers-on are in order for plenty of reasons, chief of which are it will enhance the paranoid endemic in these circles and will further serve to get the point across there is an FBI Agent behind every mailbox. In addition, some will be overcome by the overwhelming personalities of the contacting agent and volunteer to tell all - perhaps on a continuing basis. The Director has okayed PSI's and SI's age 18 to 21. We have been blocked off from this critical age group in the past. Let us take advantage of this opportunity.

In payments to informants, if the total of services and expenses to an informant is less than $300 in a lump sum payment or per month, our request for such payment is denied within division 5. If the lump sum payment or monthly authorization is $300 or more, it must be approved on a much higher level. Note: If an informant is to travel outside our division and we initially go in and request expense payment of less than $300, it can be handled simply while the services payment can be requested later based on what he has produced.

Gourmet Dining at Hobart Has Been Traced To Saga Founding

by Linda Burnett

Believe it or not, Hobart is the birthplace of the nationwide Saga Corporation. In 1948, three enterprising Hobart juniors, now the head executives of Saga, needed money. At the same time, the Hobart cafeteria closed down due to financial difficulties. Anticipating possible profit, W. Price Laughlin, Harry W. Anderson and William F. Scandling persuaded the college administration to let them manage a student meal service. Today Saga sponsors food services for 278 institutions (92% net revenue from college cafeterias).

From the beginning, business know-how made the Saga Food Service profitable. Instead of students paying for individual meals, a pre-pay program was initiated. Every two weeks, $25 was paid in return for 36 meals and guaranteed second servings.

With the money collected and $500 investment by each of the three founders, a cook was hired. Students were served in a 125 seat dining room by double shifts.

Between classes, the three founders ordered food, helped cook and wash dishes. Several months later, the dietician at William Smith unexpectedly quit, expanding their student-run operation. Profit for the first year was $1,254 on a sale of $17,478 worth of food.

Graduation threatened to discontinue early Saga. A lack of attractive post-graduate job offerings lead Laughlin to consider commuting to Cornell University for courses in food management while continuing profits at Hobart.

In 1951, more clients were sought. Kalamazoo College in Michigan became the second Saga-run institution. Within 3 years, 3 more colleges were added to the management. By 1967, Saga executives boasted "5 million meals served a week."

The corporate name "Saga" has an historic origin dear to Hobart hearts. Saga is derived from the Indian name for the city of Geneva.

Headquarters for the massive management are at 1 Saga Lane, Menlo Park, California, 94025. Annual meetings held on the first Thursday after the first Sunday in October discuss criticisms and success as rated by nationwide student surveys.

In order to compete with local catering companies, great care is taken to serve the preferred food at each college. For example, there is an increase in broccoli and croutons at Hobart due to specific student request! Extra helpings, except Saturday night steaks, lose some profit, but pay off in putting Saga ahead of other food companies. Another advantage to having a Saga card, is its immediate validity at any other school under the Saga meal plan, of which there are many in this area.

Saga managers are periodically graded for financial success, quality of meals served and communication with students. According to a company rule of 1967, managers must spend 25% of mealtime in the student dining area. Recruiting managers is done by scholarships to promising students. Over 100 managers (of the 457 in 1967) and one corporate Vice President started as student workers at Saga.

Humorists Wanted; Lampoon Contest

The National Lampoon, the monthly humor magazine which reaches its first birthday in March of this year, will mark that initial anniversary with the introduction of the first Annual College Humor Writing Competition.

Douglas Kenney, Editor of the Lampoon, announced that he and his fellow Editors believe that this will be a first in that students at colleges and universities in the United States and Canada are being invited to participate in a competition designed exclusively to encourage the writing of humor and satire.

The competition will offer twenty-five prizes to the twenty-five top winners with first prize being an all-expense paid trip for two to Brazil and the Amazon via Pan American World Airways. The first prize winner and a companion of his or her choice will be flown to New York and then to Brazil. Once in Brazil, both will sail down the Amazon River, visiting native towns in what should be an unusual and exotic experience.

Second prize is a one thousand dollar Kawasaki motorcycle, third prize is a $475 motorcycle and fourth prize a $299 cycle. Fifth and sixth prizes are Garrard automatic turntables. Additional prizes will include record collections and five year subscriptions to the Lampoon.

Entries for the competition may be submitted only by students currently enrolled at the graduate and undergraduate level in colleges in the United States and Canada or U.S. possessions. Those eligible may submit original humorous or satirical material in any form (including, but not limited to, essay, short story, verse, short play, criticism or parody.) Submissions must be typewritten, must not exceed 2,500 words in length and must be postmarked no later than midnight, May 1st, 1971. They should be addressed to: The College Competition, National Lampoon, 635 Madison Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10022.

MASTERING THE DRAFT

Since President Nixon seeks extension of the draft now, it is more useful to consider his reforms proposed for the near future, rather than the volunteer army he dreams about for the distant future. The President's reforms are contained in his request for draft extension, Senate Bill No. 427.

Chief among the reforms is abolition of the II-S deferment. The II-S would not be phased out for men who were enrolled in college as of April 22, 1970. They would remain eligible for deferment under current II-S rules.

As for students who enrolled after April 22, 1970, their future was predicted by Dr. Curtis W. Tarr, Director of Selective Service, in recent testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee: "A young man enrolling . . . after April 22 . . . would be eligible for call when his local board reached his random selection number, with the understanding that he be permitted to complete the semester, term or quarter in which he then was enrolled." His induction might thus be postponed—but not cancelled and then reordered subsequently.

The end of the present cancellation procedure is foreseeable, because Senate Bill 427 would also abolish the I-S(C) deferment. That deferment is currently available and acts to cancel an induction order received by a fulltime student who is making satisfactory progress.

"There is no question in my mind," Dr. Tarr testified, "that the spirit of inquiry and the enthusiasm for scholarship on college campuses would be enhanced greatly if the compulsion imposed by undergraduate student deferments were eliminated."

Dr. Tarr based his opinion upon six years' experience as President of Lawrence College (1963-69): "I have talked with countless numbers of young people during my years as a college president who would have gained a great deal personally by interrupting their college work to take time to understand their purpose in study and how better they might orient their lives. But whenever I asked why they did not choose to take time for this reappraisal, consistently young men reported that they felt bound to continue college work so that they might avoid induction."

Senate Bill 427 would also phase out exemptions for divinity school students (Class IV-D). Should Congress grant President Nixon the authority he desires, "It is his intention," according to Dr. Tarr, "to continue all exemptions to divinity students enrolled prior to January 28, 1971, but not to authorize new ones."

So, if you are planning on a IV-D exemption, but you were not enrolled in a divinity school prior to last January 28, your plans may fall through with the passage of Senate Bill 427.

The Bill is also designed to plug up a loophole opened by the Supreme Court's decision in United States v. Toussie (March 2, 1970). Under Toussie the statute of limitations bars prosecution of a young man for failing to register for the draft within 5 days after his 18th birthday, if no prosecution has been initiated within 5 years after the alleged crime, i.e., before the young man reaches the age of 23 years and 5 days.

The Toussie rule would be repealed by Senate Bill 427. The government could prosecute for refusal to register up until the refuser's 31st birthday.

Senate Bill 427 also proposes that the President be given authority to substitute a "uniform national call" for the present haphazard quota system under which draft boards call different lottery numbers at different times. "Under the present law," the President complained last April, "a man with sequence number 195 may be called up by one draft board while a man with a lower number in a different draft board is not called."

Dr. Tarr echoed the President's earlier sentiments and testified in favor of the institution of a uniform national lottery call: "Each local community would be protected against having a disproportionate number of its young men called because we would hold to the same random selection number everywhere in the nation and only those men in the community with numbers below that national number could ever be called by the community's local board."

Other than these few reforms, Senate Bill 427 is conspicuously lacking in any proposals relating to conscientious objection, alternative forms of civilian work, right to counsel, restructuring of the draft board system, change in qualifications for membership on draft boards, annual ceilings on draft calls, or any of the other major issues disturbing draft reformers. We would appreciate your reactions to Senate Bill 427 since we are lobbying for much wider reform. Send your comments to "Mastering the Draft," Suite 1202, 60 East 42nd Street, New York, N.Y. 10017.

New Development VP

Dr. Donald A. Morris of Ann Arbor, Mich. has been named vice president for development and public relations of Hobart and William Smith Colleges. Dr. Allan A. Kuusisto, president of the colleges, in making the announcement said it would be effective July 1.

Now manager of the Metropolitan Detroit Development Program of the University of Michigan, Dr. Morris has had a career ranging from newspaper work to university relations to development.

Of him, Dr. Kuusisto said, "He has seen all aspects of the development and public relations business and comes to us very high recommended."

Vice President Clifford E. Orr, who nearly four years ago was drafted from the president's office to direct the colleges' development and public relations, will return to those duties and special services.

Dr. Morris, a native of Detroit, will also hold the rank of assistant professor of political science. He began his career as a copy boy for The Detroit Times in September, 1952, at the same time he entered college.

Working up through the ranks, he became a reporter in 1955, and advanced to education writer for The Detroit Times two years later, a post he held until joining the staff of Wayne State University in 1960. He took his A.B. degree there in 1961, then added the master of public administration degree at the University of Michigan in 1966.

Meanwhile, Dr. Morris had moved on to managing editor of the news service of the University of Michigan in 1962. Two years later he became manager of special programs at that university, a post he held for four years until taking over the Detroit development office as manager.

Dr. Morris received the Ph.D. degree last year from the Center for the Study of Higher Education of the University of Michigan. His dissertation was "Analysis of Donors of $10,000 or more to the $55 million Program at the University of Michigan."

He married the former Zelta Mae Stormer of Dearborn, Mich. in 1958, and is the father of a son, Dwight, 11, and daughter, Julie, 9.

Active in community service, Dr. Morris has been a member of the Citizens Advisory Committee of the Washtenaw County Juvenile Court, a consultant to Project 74, a student of juvenile needs for Ann Arbor, Mich., which took its name from the ten year project from 1964-74, and was a member of the budget committee of the Ann Arbor United Fund.

In his profession, he is a charter member of the Detroit Press Club, holds membership in the American College Public Relations Association and Sigma Delta Chi, served a term as president of the Michigan College Public Relations Association, was on the executive board of the Newspaper Guild of Detroit, and the boards of directors of the Family Service of Ann Arbor and the University Crest Club.

Radio Turns On Music and Talk

by Joe Flood

For those of you who may not know it, WEOS FM has begun broadcasting as of Tuesday, March 30. Frequency is 89.7 on the FM dial. The current broadcasts are tests, since the F.C.C. has not yet granted WEOS its educational station license. The full program of news, sports, and shows will run from 6:45 a.m. to 3:00 a.m. Monday through Saturday, and 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 a.m. Sunday. This weekend only, WEOS will operate around the clock.

The WEOS staff of sixty, d.j.'s, management, and engineers, plan to produce a feature program each week of a broadcast lecture, discussion or other educational material, plus the usual fare of varied music shows during the day and specialty shows at night. Requests for specific songs should not be phoned in, but sent through intercampus mail (WEOS) at least one day ahead of time. WEOS will cover a minimum of nine miles and maximum of twenty-four, bringing pleasure and diversion to such obscure and neglected places as Keuka College, Seneca Falls, and our own campus. This new range is due to the conversion at a cost of approximately $25,000 of the 15-year-old AM facilities to the less cluttered FM band.

With a record library of 8,000 volumes and the potential to broadcast at three kilowatts, WEOS has an excellent future. Plans include broadcasts of away - from - home games, conversion to FM stereo and power increases to eventually reach most of Central New York.

According to Rich Lee, Station Manager, anyone interested in joining the WEOS staff must possess a third class engineer's license. Information as to the license's availability may be obtained any broadcasting day at WEOS offices in Sherrill basement.

Congress Together Rap On Dorms

by Betsy McKean

A special meeting of the Congress was called before the recess to discuss and vote on the localization or freshmen next year and the Resident Advisor system. The motion to discontinue the localization passed 24-0-2. The arguments in favor of placing the freshmen together had been that they therefore developed friendships among their peers, and that they had recommended it for next year. The arguments that influenced the final decision were the bad habits that localization reinforces, and the fact that the freshmen have never known another system and therefore cannot objectively judge the results.

The Resident Advisor system was passed for next year, as it is felt that it can be effective without localization.

The results of the opinion poll on the merge of the two governments are 138 in favor, 153 against it, and 30 abstentions. Those elected to the Executive Board last Monday are Mary Beth Elze, treasurer; Louise Dobbins, corresponding secretary; and Jean Ann Linney, recording secretary.

In This Corner

by Carl Fazio

Florida is gas stations, motels, trailer parks, gas stations and fast food joints. The south is gas stations, trucks, billboards, more gas stations.

Inspired by Jim Bouton's "Ball Four," I will attempt to present the baseball team's second annual spring trip to St. Petersburg in diary form. Any reference to specific characters is purely intentional, though done in jest.

Friday, March 19th

For most of us, the long, painstaking drive south began today. 26 hours straight through, but spurred on by the thought of the Florida sun, Geneva, New York, just didn't exist anymore.

Made quick stops in Jacksonville, Orlando and Daytona Beach. The latter has to be the only beach that can boast the possibility of a three-car smash-up. Cars cruise back and forth on the beach itself amidst sun worshippers, no less than 5 feet from the water's edge. The surprising thoroughfare is complete with motorcycle cops.

Exchange Street it ain't.

Saturday, March 20th

We arrived at the Southern Regional Headquarters equipped with 2 fields, 2 pitching machines, air-conditioned dorm, swimming pool and recreation hall — so said our Southern source who led us to our accommodations.

Well, we can't call him a liar. The facilities are used for Little League baseball. Hmmm. Seems that we all have the same roommates, 19 of them, all decked out in neat little bunkbeds. It's more like an army barracks.

Would Marv Thornberry stand for this?

Carlos Perez, our rookie infielder, tore ligaments in his ankle today playing, what else, basketball. He'll be out for 3-4 weeks.

We met some 30 year umpire who has flunked umpire school 2 years in a row. Call him George. Said George, "If you can't score in Florida, you can't score in a whore house." We'll see.

Sunday, March 21st

Two-a-day workouts started today. Up at 7:00 a.m. I think that might be a sin. Coaches Upper and Austin woke us up by banging pots and pans. They'll get theirs.

These beds are very strange. Besides sagging in the middle and squeaking unmercifully, there seems to be a few grains of sand embedded in the sheets. Nevertheless one could drift off to sleep secure in the thought that he was sleeping in the very bed where a great Little Leaguer once slept.

Some of us did 24 sprints after afternoon practice. That wasn't too smart. Maybe our legs will heal when we get back North.

Monday, March 22nd

We got the pots and pans treatment again this morning. Feels like we've been here a month already. Between the mattresses and sprints, our bodies have aged 20 years.

After a brisk morning workout, we traveled to Sarasota to play the Kansas City Royals Baseball Academy. There was a general feeling that we were getting in a little above our heads. The Royals have been playing every day since August. We've been playing every day since yesterday. We got clobbered. The facilities were nice though.

Most everyone went to Jai Alai tonight. Most everyone lost except Coach Upper. (Prather, Miller and Perez won peanuts.) With what he won, Mrs. Upper should send him down to Florida more often.

Guccia, Grossi, Yonkin and Shanley went to the Greyhound Dog Races. They bet on dogs all night, too. No one won.

F.B.I. Records

Pa. office March 8. Deciding against a court injunction to bar publication of the documents, Atty. Gen. John Mitchell instead issued a plea for self-censorship, heeded by the two Congressmen, but partially ignored by THE POST.

"It appears likely that these records include information which would disclose the identity of confidential investigation sources and information relating to the national defense," Mitchell said.

One of the documents encourages agents to step up interviews with dissenters "for plenty of reasons, chief of which are it will enhance the paranoia endemic in these circles and will further get the point across there is an F.B.I. agent behind every mailbox."

The document, dated Sept. 16, 1970, adds that "some will be overcome by the overwhelming personalities of the contacting agent and volunteer to tell all — perhaps on a continuing basis."

A memorandum issued Nov. 4, 1970 by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover directs surveillance of black student groups on campuses: "Increased campus disorders involving black students pose a definite threat to the Nation's stability and security and indicate need for increase in both quality and quantity of intelligence information on . . . (such groups which are targets for influence and control by violence-prone Black Panther Party and other extremists.)"

THE POST, in an apparent attempt to avoid potential legal hassles, refrained from naming any of the FBI agents or contacts in their report of the documents. The newspaper also refrained from naming colleges, individuals, or groups under surveillance, except for mention of the Philadelphia Black Panthers and the National Black Economic Development Conference, and its national vice president, Muhammad Kenyatta.

Apparently heeding in part Atty. Gen. Mitchell's pleas for "self-censorship," THE POST also refrained from any comprehensive summary of the documents, preferring to "highlight" them in a half-page article. As of release #63, CPS was unable to obtain further information about the documents than was revealed in THE POST article. One of the individuals under surveillance, described by the newspaper as "a professor at a Philadelphia-area college," was suspected of harboring one or more fugitives.

The local police chief, the local postmaster and letter carriers, a campus security officer and a switchboard operator at the college were engaged by the FBI to assist in the surveillance of the professor, an FBI agent reported.

The telephone operator agreed to furnish the FBI with a list of long-distance telephone calls to or from the professor. The switchboard operator told an FBI agent the professor had brought controversial speakers to the campus and that he was generally regarded as a "radical."

A campus security officer also provided information to the FBI about the professor. The postmaster was shown copies of "wanted" posters of the alleged fugitives, and told the FBI he had alerted his letter carriers to the appearance of the fugitives. The professor's mail carrier, according to the memo, "reveals that he has no recollection of mail coming to that residence addressed to other than" the professor and his family.

One memorandum includes a reproduction of the Black Economic Development Conference's checking account statement at the Southeast National Bank in Chester, Pa. during a three-month period, provided by the bank for the FBI.

The Sept. 16 document urging the spreading of paranoia among students also makes reference to student agents: "The Director has okayed PSI's (Paid Student Informers) and SI's (Student Informers) age 18 to 21. We have been blocked off from this critical age group in the past. Let us take advantage of this opportunity."

The document indicates that informer pay-offs are substantial: "In payments to informants, if the total of services and expenses to an informant is less than $300 in a lump sum payment or per month, our request for such payment is handled within division 5. If the lump sum payment or monthly authorization is $300 or more, it must be approached on a much higher level. Note: If an informant is to travel outside our division and we initially go in and request expense payment of less than $300, it can be handled simply while the services payment can be requested later based on what he has produced."

Now if everyone's sore arms and legs would only heal . . .

Coach's car got back at 2 a.m. Some guys are beginning to think they shouldn't take the midnight curfew too seriously.

Tuesday, March 23rd

After a morning workout, everyone took off for the beach as we had the afternoon off. Word has it that some guys saw a couple of girls under 55 years of age. Don't believe it.

Coach Austin (who has been affectionately coined Odie Austin) is picking up quite a reputation for being a chowhound. Without four full meals a day plus snacks, he thinks he'll shrivel up and blow away. Some guys think that might not be too bad a thing.

Lost to St. Petersburg Junior College tonight, 5-4. Miller pitched well but the outfielders had trouble with the lights. Odie Austin had to go to a hot dog stand after the 5th inning.

One great thing about our dorm, no one can go to sleep until everyone comes in. If one guy snores or moans (Prather, Poli and Herrold usually), everyone hears it. Another thing, no one can come in quietly; he must share his evening conquests with everyone else. Team unity only goes so far.

Wednesday, March 24th

Only one practice session today. Everyone's tired because you just can't get by on six hours of sleep a night. Curfew's out the window, and if you can hit dreamland by 1 a.m. you're lucky. Then it's up at 7:30 again.

I hope the Little Leaguers like the food they serve here. We don't.

Skin flicks highlighted the evening's activity. There was a lot of moaning in the dorm that night.

Tuesday, March 25th

Played a morning intrasquad game with the pitching machine (iron mike) on the mound. Too bad we can't use Mike during the season — he can hum a pitch over 100 mph.

We lost again under the lights to St. Petersburg Junior College.

Odie Austin asked John Wood to go out and get him an Arby's after the third inning. It can get awfully lonely out there at the first base coach's box.

Friday, March 26th

Incidentally, our dorm is called Astro-Dorm. I doubt if Judge Hoffheinz would approve.

Coach Upper was in such a hurry to get back to Jai Alai tonight that he walked through a screen door in his cabin. It was all for naught, though. He lost.

Saturday, March 27th

Suddenly, the last day is upon us. Weather reports from up North were not promising — neither was the snow that fell in the Carolinas and Georgia.

Harlambakis and Grassi barged into the coaches' cabin and woke them with pots and pans. That was sweet.

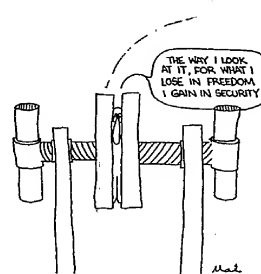

We arrived to play St. Pete in our last out of the spring while a giant kite-flying contest was in session on the adjoining field. We were not as high as most of the kites. We lost again.

The drive back lasted forever. There was just nothing to look forward to upon arrival.

The Coach's car got lost in Washington with Odie Austin at the wheel. Some contend, however, that the driver was simply looking for a place to eat.

All in all, the Florida excursion was an improvement over last year. Although the accommodations and the food left a little to be desired, the weather was great, and it's good to have four games under your belt.

Now if everyone's sore arms and legs would only heal . . .

Lacrosse Team Strong; Dixie Trip Is Successful

by Gary Abelson

It was a 99% successful Southern trip for the Hobart College Lacrosse Team as they defeated Ohio Wesleyan 15-3 on Tuesday and Duke 15-4 on Thursday before succumbing to Towson State 14-10 on Saturday, after leading most of the way.

Up through the first half of the Towson game, the team played some of its finest lacrosse ever. Both of their first two outings were no contests as the Statesmen showed no mercy. The defense, somewhat like a fullcourt press in basketball, kept both Ohio and Duke bottled up, enabling us to apply almost constant pressure.

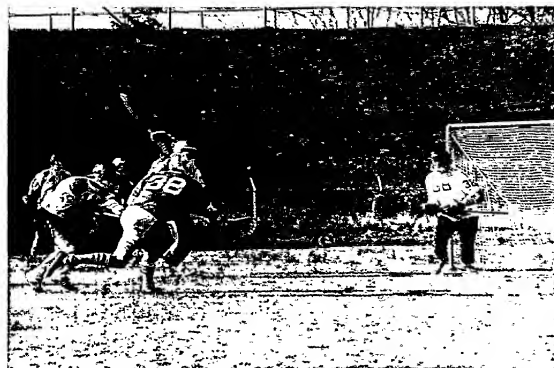

Against Towson, the team led 8-3 at halftime and appeared to be well on their way to defeating the 10th ranked team in the nation. But a long week of practice and a seven-hour car ride from Greensboro, North Carolina, to Baltimore caught up with the team, and they faltered in the second half. Towson scored seven times to our two to knot the contest at 10-10 at the end of regulation play. Two goals in the first two minutes of the overtime got the villains off to a quick lead which they never relinquished. The lacemen had several scoring opportunities after that but they just could not find the nets.

The team shapes up with its finest personnel in many years. Up front at attack Schmidt has seniors John Topichak, a 2nd team Little All-American last season, and co-captain Mike Ryan, a stand-out on the Southern swing. In addition, he has junior Tim Ryan, sophomore Dave Williams and freshmen Marc Sieben and Rick Gilbert, who is currently leading the team in scoring with 12 points.

At midfield there is a wealth of talent including seniors Jim Michaels (co-captain), John Porter (co-captain), and Wells Neal, juniors Greg Hughan, Bill Martancik, A. J. Russo, and Bill Oxberry, sophomores Don Aleksiewicz, Kevin McLean and John Van Etten, plus a host of freshman prospects.

The defense is led by junior Tom Gaggin and sophomore Bob Raleigh, both of whom played outstanding games down South. The third spot may be filled by Tim Anderson, Larry Opisso, Andy Perry, John Wisbach or Wes Kubacki.

John Porter shoots low in Ohio Wesleyan conquest

In the goal junior stand-out Dave Creighton is back with Jon Chick and Ken Mason fighting for the back-up position.

An added incentive for the lacemen this year is the inauguration of a playoff tournament at the end of the season. There will be eight teams selected, one from each of the four regions and four at-large bids. Although the Statesmen are in the toughest division, they may be able to get an at-large bid with a good season.

Tomorrow the team travels to Long Island to play a tough Hofstra squad. Next Wednesday they travel to Ithaca to play Ithaca College, a game in which the team would appreciate support from their fans. Game time is set for 3:30 p.m.

Learn About Lacrosse Rules: Course For Beginning Viewers

by Gary Abelson

In order to help Hobart lacrosse fans understand the game to its fullest, this article is dedicated to clearing up some of the more common problems and aspects of "the fastest game on two feet."

There are ten players on each team: one goalie, three defensemen, three midfielders and three attackmen. At all times there must be at least three offensive and four defensive players in each team's attack zone. Failure to do this results in an offside penalty.

Whenever a player is deemed to have taken a shot on goal and the ball goes out-of-bounds, the team closest to the ball when it goes out gains possession. Unlike most other sports, the team to touch the ball last before it leaves the playing field on a shot does not automatically lose possession. If the ball leaves the field at any other time, the team to touch it last does automatically lose possession.

Mandatory equipment includes a helmet with a face guard, gloves and a stick. Shoulder and/or arm pads may or may not be used. Sticks are between 40 and 72 inches long and 7 to 12 inches wide. Each game is made up of four 15-minute periods with a 10-minute intermission at halftime. Each overtime period consists of two 4-minute periods.

There are two types of fouls in a lacrosse game. The most common are technical fouls in which the penalty is suspension from the game for 30 seconds if the other team has the ball. If the penalized team has the ball, they lose it and it is given to the other team. Some examples of this type of penalty include interference, holding, pushing, touching the ball with your hand, illegal procedure, illegal equipment and offside.

The second type of foul is the personal foul which causes suspension from the game for one to three minutes depending on the severity of the act. Some examples of this penalty are illegal bodycheck, slashing, cross-check, tripping, unnecessary roughness and unsportsmanlike conduct. A player who commits five personal fouls is expelled from the game.

The HERALD hopes that this article will help you to better understand the game of lacrosse. If you have any questions you would like answered, send them to me at Box 143.

Ball-Crackers 1971: Pitching Important

by Richard Clinchy

For the second year in a row, the baseball team traveled to St. Petersburg for spring vacation, again pursuing a winning season. As there has been a grand total of four winning baseball teams since the sport came to the campus over 60 years ago, this is indeed a noble quest. On paper, this is one of Hobart's best baseball teams in recent years — only one starter from last year's team was lost — but the success of this year's team depends on the pitching staff.

Pitching was probably the weakest part of the spring trip, and only Craig Miller, 2-5 last year, looked strong. Also back to pitch are captain Chip MacKelcan, sophomores John Wood and Frank Carey and senior Chris Yonkin. MacKelcan was 2-2 last year, Carey 1-1 and Wood and Yonkin 0-1. The cumulative earned run average of the staff was 6.-3. "But we've got to get another pitcher. We have one and possibly two, but we do need a third," said Upper. Hopefully the pitching will come around before the season opener April 14 at home.

The team's record last year was 5-10, but in games in which the Statesmen held the opposition under nine runs, they were 5-1. Upper looks for an improved defense and stronger pitching to rectify that situation this year.

In the field, Hobart looks set at five positions, with the other three still in the air. Bart Guccia returns to the catcher's spot for the third year. Last year he only allowed one passed ball, and this year looks to improve on his .200 batting average.

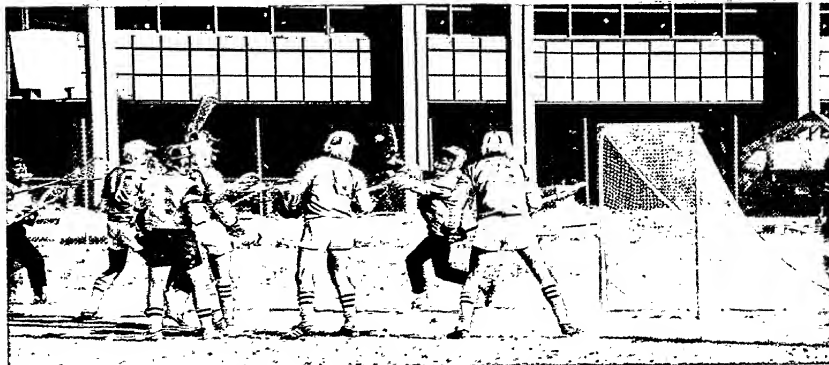

At second base is Chris Harlambakis, a .283 hitter last year, one of the steadiest fielders around. At shortstop is freshman Ron Johnson who looked very good in Florida with six hits in four games.

In left is John Poli and center is Bill Prather; the two have year. Prather was the team's best hitter last year as he batted .361 with a slugging percentage of a whopping .611. Poli batted .283 last year after leading the team for most of the season.

That leaves right field, third base and first base as open positions. Third base was last year's trouble spot. It could be filled by freshman Carlos Perez if he recuperates quickly enough from a severe ankle injury he suffered his first day in Florida. If he does not make it, Jim Shanley and Rich Clinchy, last year's reserve infielders, will battle for the position.

Although last year's first baseman John Grassi is back, the position is still in doubt. Sophomore John Herrold could push him if he improves his fielding, or Upper may have plans to move last year's right fielder Chris Yonkin, who batted .258 with 12 runs batted in, to first base. If Yonkin moves to first, then sophomore John Yonkin will compete with junior Carl Fazio for the vacated position.

All these problems, along with the team's lowly .220 batting average last year, could be solved if a strong pitching staff develops. Pitching is truly 90 per cent of the game. In no other sport is one player so important to the success of the team.

Goalie Dave Creighton makes a save in the Towson State game. Wells Neal (28), Don Aleksiewicz (43), and Larry Opisso (16), members of the Red Midfield, watch. The Statesmen lost 14-10 in overtime.

Freshman Ricky Gilbert rams home a jump shot in the 15-3 victory over Ohio Wesleyan. Kevin McLean (45) and John Topichak (44) watch.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PANDORA'S BOX will welcome in the Spring Term Friday night with Sue Trump entertaining. The festivities are due to begin around 10 p.m.

FOR SALE: 1970 BSA Victor Special, 441 cc. Contact V. McClelland, 226 Pultey St., 789-0174.

WILL anyone who is interested in working on the HERALD please speak to any member of the staff, call us at 789-4933, or come down to our office in Sherrill Basement any Tuesday or Wednesday night. We need people to work in all capacities -- and the opportunities for advancement are unlimited.

All members of the campus community are invited to give a damn about the environment by attending a general meeting of the appeal for an environmental alternative today, Friday, at 7 p.m. in Albright. Spring proposals and projects will be discussed.

Anyone who digs farming is asked to contact Box 134.

There are a number of young children in Geneva who would very much like to have a college student as a friend. All you need is a couple of hours one afternoon a week to really give a kid a good time. Transportation is provided to the child's home. This program has been known as Headstart on campus. For information, contact Brent Bleier at extension 206 or Box 227. This is NOT the Creative Workshop.

Interested in politics this spring? Want to try just one more time to end the obscenity in Vietnam? Want to stand up and be counted as a sensitive and concerned human being? Are you sick of the reek of apathy on this campus? Well, then help kick out the jams by attending a discussion of spring political activities this Monday evening at 9 p.m. in Cox 8. There is much that can be done here and elsewhere if you are willing to act. All points of view are welcome. Outside agitators and agent provocateurs are asked to identify themselves at the door. Peace.

Men's Contraceptives! Imported and best American brands. Price list free. Samples and catalogue, $1. Refunded if not satisfied. POPLAN, Box 2556-QP3, Chapel Hill, NC 27514.

"FOR POETS"

All poets can participate in the yearly contest organized by PALMER PUBLISHERS.

Contestants may send up to three entries, not exceeding thirty lines each.

The winners will be notified within 30 days, and their poems will be compiled into the book "NEW POETRY."

There will be no obligation of any sort to participants.

All entries must be mailed by April 15th to: PALMER, P.O. BOX 248, MIAMI SHORES, FLORIDA 33153.

The International Relations Club is sponsoring a dinner at 5:30 on April 10 in Gulick Ballroom. Charge will be $2.00 per person. Return order form for tickets to I.R.C., Brent House by April 3.

The HERALD urges Hobart Lacrosse fans to keep their cool this season.

Hobart fans have already gained a notorious reputation that referees and opponents are well aware of. Officials are empowered to stop the game at any time and impose a foul on the home team if its fans get out of hand.

Please use your good judgment. The Statesmen cannot afford to lose any opponents from the schedule because of rowdy fans.

Pamela Young of Westerly, R.I., a student at William Smith College, will be heard in a senior organ recital at St. John's Chapel on campus at 7:30 p.m. Friday. The public will be welcome.

A pupil of Mrs. Charlotte Bullock and Prof. Lindsay Lafford, she will play a program consisting of "Psalm 19" by Benedetto Marcello, a "Choral Prelude" on "Allein Gott in der Hohseil Ehr" by J. S. Bach, and three choral preludes on the "Passion Chorale" arranged by Dietrich Buxtehude, J. S. Bach and Johannes Brahms. She will also do a "Chorale in A Minor" by Cesar Franck, an "Antiphon No. 3" by Marcel Dupre, and "Pasticcio" by Jean Langlais.

Miss Young is serving as organist and choir director at St. John's Chapel during Professor Lafford's sabbatical leave. She is also a member of Scho'a Cantorum, the colleges major choral organization.

It was previously reported that the Tribe of Ezekiel, a group which was recently formed by sympathizers of Father Phillip Berrigan and others who have been indicted on charges of conspiracy to kidnap a Government official and destroy Government property, plans demonstrations at Washington, D. C., on April 9, 1971. The demonstrations will begin with a rally in Lafayette Park across from the White House at 11:45 a.m. The estimated 200 to 300 demonstrators will then march to the Internal Revenue Service Building where they will hold a brief religious ceremony. Following this they will march to the Justice Building where another religious ceremony will be held, including a symbolic crucifixion of one of the demonstrators. A source who has furnished reliable information in the past has advised the demonstrators have purchased $140 worth of padlocks and chains and intend to chain themselves either to the Justice Building or to nearby light poles as a form of civil disobedience. Fifty demonstrators who are to engage in civil disobedience will wear black armbands with some sort of markings, not yet known, on them.

In addition to the above civil disobedience, the demonstrators will distribute 100 copies of a document stolen from our Media, Pennsylvania, Resident Agency. This document was identified by the source as a memorandum from SA Kenneth K. Smyth dated June 17, 1970, to "ALL AGENTS." It is captioned "National Association of Black Students Convention, Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan, 6/26-7/5/70, RM." A copy of this document is attached. This document was previously included in material stolen from the Resident Agency and furnished to Congressman Parren J. Mitchell (Democrat - Maryland). It reports that the National Association of Black Students is holding captioned convention and that the Bureau has requested each office to canvass informants to locate chapters of the Association and their

: SA KENNETH K. SMYTHE

STUDENTS CONVENTION
WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY
DETROIT, MICHIGAN, 6/26-7/5/70
RM

The National Association of Black Students (NABS) is headquartered in Washington, D.C. It was formed in August, 1969, when Black Students split from the National Students Association. The National Coordinator for NABS is on the AI. U

NABS has announced its first convention scheduled for June 26-July 5, 1970, at Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan. U

The Bureau has requested that each Field Division canvass logical informants to locate NABS chapters and representatives. U

The Bureau is also desirous of having informants, in a logical position to do so, attend the convention. U

Any information about NABS activity, the scheduled convention, or an informant in a position to attend the convention, should be brought to the attention of the #9 squad supervisor. U

On [redacted]
PSI, advised that on [redacted] he was in Philadelphia to see his father. He said that while in Philadelphia on that date, he accidentally met a former acquaintance at the [redacted] in Philadelphia, with whom he chatted with for a short time. He stated this individual's name was [redacted] last name unknown, a black, whom Source had not seen since approximately [redacted]

[redacted] This Source and [redacted] discussed an article appearing on page one of the "Philadelphia Enquirer" of March 27, 1971, which contained information that the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Office in Media, Pennsylvania, had been burglarized. During the course of this discussion, [redacted] inferred that three former mutual acquaintances; namely, [redacted] [redacted] had possibly been involved in the burglary of the FBI Office. [redacted] was not specific as to how he arrived at this statement. [redacted] did not specifically mention [redacted] by name, however, Source recalls that when he knew [redacted], she was very close to [redacted] and they travelled together as a trio. The Source, therefore, assumed that [redacted] meant that it was [redacted] that were with [redacted] whom [redacted] indicated was involved in the burglary of the FBI Office. The Source stated that [redacted] did not elaborate on the possible participation of [redacted] or any of her associates in this burglary.)

Source could not recall the last name of [redacted]
He stated that in [redacted] occasionally visited a [redacted]

Source stated that two individuals whom he believes would know identities and possible whereabouts of [redacted] mentioned above, are [redacted] in Philadelphia, and [redacted] a black homosexual in Philadelphia, as they all hung out at [redacted] PSI has no information as to whereabouts of [redacted]

[redacted] advised that in [redacted] he had been acquainted with [redacted] through frequenting [redacted] Pennsylvania. It was his recollection that [redacted] were students at Swarthmore College. He stated that the three of them, to his recollection, were active in CORE, The Student's Non-Violence Coordinating Committee and the American Friends Service Committee, and they were also associated with [redacted] who is well known in Philadelphia as a conscientious objector. He recalls that [redacted] was arrested in [redacted] in a demonstration at [redacted]

[redacted] described [redacted] as a white male American, 6'1" in height, 24 to 25 years of age, blond hair, and was involved in [redacted] in the Pennsylvania area. U

[redacted] described [redacted] as a female white American, whose parents reside in Wayne, Pennsylvania, and who attended Radnor High School. She is about 24 years of age, 5'4" in height, has dark straight hair and plays the piano. U

Q142 Copy of Memorandum dated 2/9/71, beginning "The following information was furnished to..." ending "...name before the public." U

Result of examination:

It was determined that Q131 through Q142 are all 3M paper and are additional copies of similar copies previously submitted in this case. No indented writing of value was noted on Q131 through Q142. U

Q131 appears to have been prepared on an Olivetti Underwood copier. Q134 is a copy prepared on a Xerox Model 660 copier. Q132, Q133, and Q135 through Q142 appear to be Xerox copies prepared on a copier other than the Model 660. U

The obliterated material at the top of Q131 contains the hand printed words "ORIGINAL - KEEP." U

Q136 through Q138 are being forwarded to the Resident Agency, Rochester, New York, with a copy of the Buffalo report. The remaining submitted evidence is temporarily retained. Photographs have been made. U

[redacted] is a white male, born on [redacted] [redacted] at Cleveland, Ohio, has served in the United States Navy, and is known to have last resided at [redacted] Baltimore, Maryland. U

According to a confidential source of known reliability, at a meeting occurring at Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, September, 1970. a [redacted] was mentioned as potential recruiter for [redacted]

in Washington, D.C. U

Previous investigation has developed that on September 18, 1970, during a rally at New Haven, Connecticut, a flyer was passed out to persons in attendance naming six individuals, including [redacted] as being responsible for having destroyed
Selective Service records in New Haven on July 9, 1970. U

[redacted] participation was further corroborated by letters written by other conspirators in the New Haven Selective Service "action." U

A pamphlet under the letterhead of the Catholic Peace Fellowship, dated April 10, 1969, listed [redacted] as one of [redacted] of the organization. [redacted] was characterized as [redacted] The pamphlet mentioned that the major concerns of the CPF at that time were "ABM" the "Presidio 27" and the "DC 9." The signs listing these projects, the pamphlet which bore [redacted] signature, made an urgent appeal for funds and office supplies to keep CPF functioning.

According to the Washington "Evening Star," October 13, 1969, [redacted] was one of two individuals arrested on October 12, 1969, by the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) at the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, Washington, D.C. (WDC), on charges of disturbing a religious service. These individuals had refused to hand over leaflets they were attempting to distribute before they entered the Shrine. The leaflets contained a statement by the Black United Front setting forth its demands for $4 million and 19 pieces of church property in the District of Columbia from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. U

[REDACTED] was master of ceremonies at a public meeting held at Catholic University of America, WDC, on evening of March 15, 1971. During a general discussion at that meeting between members of a panel and the audience, [REDACTED] was overheard by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) making comments regarding people becoming involved actively in "Actions" rather than passively supporting "actions." Additionally he made reference to "stopping the Government before it stops us." In this light, he referenced the "Media Action" wherein he stated "various items" were removed from FBI files at Media, Pennsylvania, and the office, thereby, disrupted. He remarked to the effect that "we had been interested for some time as to what they had in their files there." Subsequently in an apparent attempt to retract what he had said, he stated that he did not really know what had happened at Media, or who was responsible. U

On March 18, 1971, [REDACTED] was interviewed by Agents of the Baltimore Division. He stated that remarks made by him at Catholic University on March 15, 1971, were obviously recorded by the FBI, and, therefore saw no point in further discussing them. U

He was then asked specifically to explain his comment regarding becoming involved actively in "Actions" rather than passive support. He replied the type or degree of "Action" should be left up to the individual; for example, the positive actions of Phillip Berrigan or the written words (Action) of [REDACTED].

In reference to his remarks "stopping the Government before it stops us," [REDACTED] replied he could not recall this specific statement, that any such statement could easily been misinterpreted, and, therefore, he did not care to engage in a "play of words." U

He denied any implication or knowledge of anyone involved in burglary of the Media Resident Agency. Upon being informed that he made a statement to the effect that "We have been interested for a long time in what they had in the files up there," [REDACTED] replied that his knowledge of this crime came from reading an account of it in "The Philadelphia Inquirer," and that "we have been interested" actually meant that he is personally interested in any information the FBI collects or reports about him as well as any other source such as Internal Revenue, newspaper, magazines, et cetera. U

He claimed that his entire knowledge of the Media incident was confined to aforementioned news account which did not report that FBI files were stolen; therefore, he was not aware of any theft of Government property until being so informed by interviewing Agents. He further claimed that the specific remark "up there" referred to the Philadelphia news account, Philadelphia being located "up" from Washington, D.C. He requested to be directly quoted that he "does not know where Media, Pennsylvania is."

In reference to his reported remark "liberating certain items from FBI files at Media" [REDACTED] remarked that "again this is a play on words." He remarked that contents of any FBI records are unknown to him, and that "liberating certain items" could mean releasing to the public information about a "new machine" or some invention, the knowledge of which is kept from the public, but which the public is entitled to know about. He refused any further explanations.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency;
it and its contents are not to be
